EXPLANATORY.

The Gazetteer of New England is arranged by States, as follows: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut. Under each State the Towns, Cities, Villages, and Post-offices are inserted in one alphabetical arrangement, in the manner best adapted for easy reference. Descriptions of nearly four thousand places are given in compact form, and great care has been used in compiling to insure completeness and accuracy.

It also includes the official Census tables of the various States, with many cities outside of New England.

The steel-plate Map opposite title page will be found a great convenience to use in connection with the Gazetteer.
